

Websites, Apps and Programs to support learning and teaching in music

Websites	Information
ABRSM Classical 100 www.classical100.org	Access to recordings of a diverse range of classical music pieces for listening, with information about the composers and the story behind each piece of music. Suitable for: All Levels Cost: free
BBC Education – Music www.bbc.co.uk/education	Class clips for introducing singing, instruments, composing, music of different styles and genres and musical concepts. Suitable for: All Levels Cost: free
BBC Ten Pieces I, II & III http://www.bbc.co.uk/programmes/p04pc0j8	Selected pieces of orchestral music recorded alongside short animated films to introduce children to classical music. Lesson plans and other resources are available to go with each piece. Suitable for: First and Second Level Cost: free
Film Education http://www.filmeducation.org/resources/primary/	Provides resources including lesson plans and film clips to cover a range of curricular areas. This features a topic on music and sound in film. Suitable for: First and Second Level Cost: free
Into Film https://www.intofilm.org/	Provides resources, including lesson plans and presentations, for using film to engage children in learning across the curriculum. Many of the resources are linked to music through discussion and activities focused on film sound tracks. Suitable for: First and Second Level Cost: free

Primary Resources www.primaryresources.co.uk	Easy to follow music lesson plans linked to different topics. Suitable for: All Levels Cost: free
Sparklebox www.sparklebox.co.uk	Display resources – conductor cards, musical symbol posters, musical instrument flashcards, musical notation cards. Suitable for: All Levels Cost: free
The Boy and the Bunnet www.theboyandthebunnet.com	Cross-curricular resources to go with the Scottish story 'The Boy and the Bunnet'. Introduces children to Scots language and musical instruments. Suitable for: First Level Cost: free
Twinkl www.twinkl.co.uk	Lesson plans and classroom display resources for music topics. Suitable for: All Levels Cost: Some resources free, subscription for others.
Young Persons Guide to the Orchestra https://brittenpears.org/explore/benjamin-britten/music/young-persons-guide/	Based around Benjamin Britten's composition The Young Person's Guide to the Orchestra, this website features a recorded and filmed performance of the piece, an interactive score, listening and composition games and information about all the instruments of the orchestra. Suitable for: First and Second Level Cost: free
YouTube www.youtube.com	Access videos for demonstrating examples of people playing instruments, groups of musicians (e.g. the orchestra) and music of different genres and cultures. Suitable for: All Levels Cost: free

Apps	Information
Carnival of the Animals - Naxos	An orchestral recording of Saint-Saens' Carnival of the Animals including 14 movements, each representing a different animal. This app includes information about the composer, rhyming verses and colourful animated illustrations of the animals to go along with each track. Suitable for: Early and First Level Cost: £3.99
My First Classical Music App – Naxos	An introduction to classical music, composers and the orchestra. Over 40 recordings of different pieces of music with demonstrations for every instrument of the orchestra. Interactive resource with animations, sound effects and narrated text. Suitable for: First and Second Level Cost: £3.99
My First Orchestra App – Naxos	A sequel to 'My First Classical Music App', this interactive introduction to the orchestra features over 40 recordings of classical music and animated performers demonstrating each instrument. Includes narration of the text and a quiz about the instruments. Suitable for: First and Second Level Cost: £3.99
Musical Advent Calendar – Naxos	Open a door each day in December and listen to a different piece of seasonal classical music, including Christmas carols and instrumental music. Suitable for: All Levels Cost: free
Beanie's Musical Instruments – Naxos	A simple introduction to musical instruments. Tap the curtains to reveal Beanie the bear playing a different instrument each time. Children hear what each instrument sounds like and what it is called. Suitable for: Early and First Level Cost: £1.49

Fun Folk – Flo-Culture	An introduction to Scottish traditional music, song, stories and ceilidh dancing with interactive activities, animations and films. Includes material in both Gaelic and Scots languages. Suitable for: Early and First Level Cost: free
The Nutcracker Musical Storybook – Ichiban Entertainment	This animated and interactive storybook provides an introduction to the story of The Nutcracker Ballet and the music of Tchaikovsky. Suitable for: All Levels Cost: £2.99
Meet the Orchestra – Vide Infra	An introduction to the families of the orchestra and the musical instruments in each section. Includes a ‘Quiz’ section to develop skills in recognising instruments by appearance and sound. Suitable for: First and Second Level Cost:
A Jazzy Day – The Melody Book	An interactive story that introduces the jazz band and instruments. Featuring sounds from real acoustic instruments and games to identify instruments such as Bass, Drums, Guitar, Piano, Alto Saxophone etc. Suitable for: First Level Cost: £3.99
GarageBand – Apple (Only available for Apple devices)	GarageBand can be used to record, create, edit and share music. Virtual or real instruments can be recorded, edited and layered together to create an audio track. Suitable for: First and Second Level Cost: free
Computer Program	Information
Audacity	Audacity software can be downloaded and used for recording, playing back and editing sound. Suitable for: First and Second Level Cost: free